Implementation of Goods and Services Tax (GST) on the following items will have zero rate after the GST Law comes into force on 1st July, 2017.

As a result of which these items will be available at cheaper rates to the common man at large:

- 1) Foodgrains and flours
 - a. Cereals
 - b. Pulses
 - c. Atta
 - d. Maida
 - e. Besan

Except branded ones with registered trade mark in whose case GST will be charged at the rate of 5 %.

- 2) Fresh milk
- 3) Fresh vegetables and fresh fruits
- 4) Puffed rice (muri)
- 5) Common salt
- 6) Animal feed
- 7) Organic manure
- 8) Fire wood
- 9) Raw silk/raw wool/jute
- 10) Hand operated agriculture equipments.

Due to no GST on these items, most of them are expected to become cheaper in the range of approximately 4-5% as compared to their existing prices.
