

Haryana Government has decided to provide financial relief to the people of the State by giving an exemption of 25% on property tax for the year 2021-22. Apart from this, a 10% discount has also been given for this year till 30th September, 2021.

Print

July 13, 2021

- Chandigarh, July 13- Haryana Government has decided to provide financial relief to the people of the State by giving an exemption of 25% on property tax for the year 2021-22. Apart from this, a 10% discount has also been given for this year till 30th September, 2021.
- While stating this here today, an official spokesperson said that a notification has been issued by the Government in this regard amending the notification issued by the Urban Local Bodies Department (Committees) dated October 11, 2013.
- No. IPRDH/2021